This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. NOTICE.

To those acquainted with the late owner, or the collection of books now offered to the public, nothing more is necessary than to mention the fact of the sale; but to others it may be interesting, and the subscribers believe it to be their duty to point out, in this short notice, some of the works, and the general character of the collection.

Mr. CROWNINSHIELD, it is well known, had been, for many years, and at every favorable opportunity, adding to his collection every choice work or rare book that he could procure. In this he succeeded so well that it may be doubted if there is in this country a collection of the same size, in which may be found so many interesting literary morceaux, (especially to American collectors,) or superb copies of standard English authors. The collection includes the rare tracts and quaint historical treatises of the early New England writers, among them the Mathers, Cotton, Norton, Calef, Brainerd, Elliot, Moodey, Amos Adams, Hooke, Hooker, Welde, Davenport, Robinson, Winslow, Hubbard, Stoughton, Oakes, Shepard, Gorton, Gorges, Cushman, Ward, and others, whose tracts are now of the greatest rarity.

The EARLY AND RARE VOYAGES, TRAVELS, and GEOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTIONS of Purchas, Hakluyt, Sagard, Linschoten, De Bry, Lescarbot, Richelet, Champlain, Bethencourt, Acosta, Zarate, Hennepin, Philoponus, Marquette, Martyr, Smith, Wafer, Bloome, Frobisher, Colden, Hudson, Joutel, and others.

The collection includes fine copies of FIRST EDITIONS of Froyssart, Coryat, Purchas, Hakluyt, Shakspeare's Poems, Milton's Poems, Paradise Lost and Regained, Thomson's Poems, SUPERB LARGE PAPER COPIES OF THE WORKS OF Lord Bacon, Clarendon, Shakspeare, Milton, Spenser, Burnet, Samuel Butler, Dryden, Ben Jonson, Hume and Smollett, Robertson, Walton and Cotton, Dibdin, Sir Egerton Brydges, and others, and of the Oxford and best London editions; others with fine early or proof impressions of plates, and generally in the most superb and costly bindings, many of them by Hayday.

There are, also, works which are of peculiar interest to American collectors, such as The Bay Psalm Book, or first book printed in North America, in its original binding; Elliot's Indian Bible; books printed by Benj. Franklin, and other rarities. The rare old tracts have generally been carefully collated by the owner himself, and when there is any imperfection, it is mentioned in the Catalogue. In fact, the whole collection, with but few exceptions, is of the most desirable character.

The subscribers invite the attention of collectors to an examination of the Catalogue as it is very seldom that so good an opportunity to purchase can possibly occur. Many of the works are every day becoming more rare, passing into the possession of institutions, and beyond the reach of the most enthusiastic collectors.

380 —— —— THE INDIAN BIBLE. Second edition. 4to. mor. Cambridge, 1685

Now very rare, and a fine copy.

The New Testament was printed first in 1661. It had two title-pages, one in the Indian language and one in English. Twenty copies, which were sent to England, had a Dedication to Charles II. In 1663, the Old Testament was published, after having been three years in the press. Copies of the New Testament, already printed, were bound with it, as were also the Psalms of David. A copy of the whole was sent to Charles II. with another Dedication, which is not to be found except in those copies sent to England. The Dedications have been re-printed by the Massachusetts Historical Society. Thomas says that there should be two title-pages, one in English and one in the Indian language, but I have never seen a copy that had the English title. The corporation sent over the types and press purposely to print this work, and this is the first Bible ever printed in America. In 1680, the second edition of the Testament was printed, with the Psalms and Catechism, as before. In 1685, appeared the second edition of the Old Testament, which was bound up with the last edition of the New Testament, and the two thus made the second edition of the whole Bible. Eliot was much aided in this second edition by Josiah Cotton, son of Rev. John Cotton, of Plymouth, who was well acquainted with the Indian language. He compiled a Vocabulary of it, which is published in the third volume of the Massachusetts Historical Society's Collections. He was the original possessor of this Bible, and his autograph is on the title-page.

446 ——— A NEW SURVEY OF THE WEST INDIES, OR THE ENGLISH AMERICAN, HIS TRAVELS BY SEA AND LAND. Second edition. Folio, half cf. Maps, London, 1655

The author of this work was probably "Parson of Deale." In the second and third editions, after expurging from the dedication certain passages in honor of Fairfax, the remainder was dexterously converted into a preface, and the 22nd chapter, as containing particulars relative to the artifices used by the "Pafulins," to convert the writer, totally omitted. It was afterwards printed separately.

Southey informs us that part of the book is translated verbatim et literatim from an old translation of Gomara. See Wrangham Catalogue.

Imperfect, wants preliminary leaves, otherwise fine copy.

487 HAKLUYT, RICHARD. Principall Navigations, Voiages, and Discoveries of the English Nation, made by Sea or over Land, to the most Remote and Farthest Distant Quarters of the Earth, at any time within the Compasse of these 1500 Yeeres: DIVIDED INTO THREE SEVERALL PARTS, ACCORDING TO THE POSITIONS OF THE REGIONS WEERE-UNTO THEY WERE DIRECTED. First edition. Black letter. Complete, containing the suppressed leaves. Folio,
London, 1589

This copy has the six suppressed leaves, between 643 and 44, (Sir Francis Drake's Voyage,) fine copy, clean and neat, blue mor. bound by Hering, extremely rare, and especially so in this condition.

488 —— —— PRINCIPALL NAVIGATIONS, VOIAGES, TRAFFIQUES AND DISCOVERIES OF THE ENGLISH NATION, &c. Folio. Black letter. 3 vols. in 2. cf. London, 1598–1600

Hakluyt was patronized by Walsingham, and was in the habit of visiting Wapping, and listening to the stories of sea-faring men. He was Prebendary of Westminster, having first been a student at law at the Middle Temple, and died 23d November, 1616.

The first volume sometimes appears with the date in the title 1599. But the volume was not reprinted, only the title-page, and the last printed has no mention of the Cadiz voyage, the Earl of Essex having fallen into the Queen's displeasure.

The voyage to Cadiz is rarely found with the volume, but sometimes a very good fac-simile is inserted, as in this copy. To discover the difference between the two, see Lowndes.

This copy has the fac-simile wood-cut maps, and wants the signature G 4, which is, however, a blank leaf.

Mr. H. Stevens says the catch-word on Sig. H 2 would make it appear the H has more than two leaves, but he has seen five copies, and all are alike. It is also re-printed in the folio edition as here.

A fine copy of the whole of the voyages, and very rare.

573 Johnson, Edward. History of New England, from the English Planting in the Yeere 1628, untill the Yeere 1652. 4to. half cf. London, 1654

A very curious book, called "Wonder-Working Providence" of Sion's Saviour in New England. The author, says Prince, was Mr. Ed. Johnson, of Woburn. He had "a most intolerable itch for versifying, celebrating many of his characters in quaint metre." The following is in honor of Gôv. Endecot:

"Strong, valiant John, wilt thou march on, and take up station first,
Christ call'd hath thee, his souldier be, and fail not of thy trust:
Wilderness wants, Christ's grace supplants, then plant his churches pure,
With tongues gifted, and graces led, help thou to his procure;
Undaunted thou wilt not allow, malignant men to waste,
Christ's vineyard heere, whose grace should cheer, his well beloved's taste,
Then honoured be, thy Christ hath thee, their generall promoted,
To show their love, in place above, his people have thee voted.
Yet must thou fall to grave with all the nobles of the earth,
Thou rotting worme, to dust must turn, and worse but for new birth."

Gorges included the whole of this work, "America Painted to the Life," merely changing the title, and adding two pages of introduction.

655 Martyr, Peter. The Decades of the Newe Worlde or West India. TRANSLATED FROM THE LATIN, BY RICHARDE EDEN. Black letter. 4to. cf. gt. London, 1555

For full title and account of translator, see Rich.

Eden was the first Englishman who undertook to present, in a collective form, the astonishing results of the spirit of maritime enterprise, which had been everywhere awakened by the discovery of America. Nor was he a mere compiler. In point of learning, accuracy, and integrity, he is certainly superior to Hakluyt. This work is rendered more precious by information scattered through it, derived from the great seamen of the day, with whom the author's turn of mind led him to associate. In one chapter, he speaks of "The Voyages of that worthy owlde man, Sebastian Cabote, yet lyvinge in Englande."—MEMOIR OF SEBASTIAN CABOT.

878 PSALMS. THE BAY PSALM BOOK. THE WHOLE OF THE PSALMS FAITHFULLY TRANSLATED INTO ENGLISH METRE. 12mo. vellum. Printed by Stephen Daye, Cambridge, 1640

This is a perfect copy of the first book printed in North America, and in the original old vellum binding.
Prince, in his preface to the revised edition of 1758, gives the following account of its origin, and of the first edition printed by Daye. "By 1636, there were come over thither, near thirty learned and pious Ministers, educated in the Universities of England, and from the same exalted Principles of Scripture purity in Religious Worship, they set themselves to translate the Psalms, and other Scripture Songs, into English metre, as near as possible to the inspired original. They committed this work especially to the Rev. Mr. Weld, and the Rev. John Elliot, of Roxbury, well acquainted with the Hebrew, and the Greek also. They finished the Psalms in 1640, which were first printed by Mr. Daye that year, and had the honor of being the first book printed in North America, and, as far as I find, in the whole New World."—Thomas's History of Printing.

"Altogether, the work is one of the most curious and singular of the time, a compound of truth and fiction, of quaint prose, and still quainter verse, and, although it does not add much to our information respecting the early settlement of Newfoundland, is well deserving of a place in an American library.

This copy has the very rare map of Newfoundland before the text.

The map by Captain John Mason, who spent seven years in the country, is rarely found with the book."

Some copies of the edition are without any date on the title-page.

"Sir Hovenden Walker was the naval commander of the Great Expedition against Canada, which sailed from Boston, N. E. 1710, but which proved a complete failure, owing, it was said, to the unskilfulness of the pilots, by which eight ships and nearly a thousand men were lost in the St. Lawrence. Great blame was attached to Sir Hovenden, and he published this account in his own defence."—Nichol's Lit. Anec. vol. i. 178.

1119 ——— Roger. A Key into the Language of America, or an Help to the Language of the Natives in that part of America called New England. Rare. 16mo. cf. London, 1643

This very curious little book contains many interesting particulars of the manners and customs of the Massachusetts and neighboring Indians. Each of the 32 chapters, of which it is composed, is concluded with a few verses. The following, which concludes the XXIIId, which treats of the Government and Justice of the Indians, may serve as a specimen of the whole:

Adulteries, Murthers, Robberies, Thefts,
Wild Indians punish these
And hold the scales of justice so
That no man farthing leese.

When Indians heare the horrid filths
Of Irish, English Men,
The horrid oaths and murthers late
Thus say these Indians then:

We weare no Cloaths, have many Gods,
And yet our sinnes are lesse:
You are Barbarians, Pagans wild,
Your Land's the Wildernesse.

F. Dibdin, splendid copies, bound by Hayday; Sir E. Brydges, Horace Walpole, Brunet, Lowndes, Watt, Horne, Ames, Renouard, Ternaux, Kennett, and others; British Essayists, Beaumont and Fletcher, Hallam, Sparks' Franklin, and Washington, large paper; the early voyages of Acosta, Zarate, Linschoten, Sagard, Bethencourt, Lescarbot, Richelet, Dampier, Hennepin, Hudson, Joutel, Champlain, Grynæus, Philoponi, Gage, Wafer, Whitbourne, Eden, Martyr, La Vega, Vespuccius, De Soto, Cortes, and others; Pickering's edition of Walton and Cotton; White's Selborne; and many other choice works, such as would be generally collected with the same taste and judgment used in collecting those already named.

A small collection of important Autograph Letters.

The copies are in the most perfect condition, except in a few instances, and those are named as imperfect in the Catalogue.

Many of the works which are rare, have also rare or extra plates, or maps, not often to be found in the same works, even in the best collections.
